

The collapsed slate roof over the classrooms in Ghandruk school.

The new roof.

The kindergarten classrooms were also fitted out with carpet. Previously the children sat on the stone floor.

Responding to requests, we aim to fund in 2022:

- Teachers' salaries and training, school supplies and meals
- Dental and Eye healthcare visits
- Educational trip for Tiplyang students
- Contribution to construction of a teachers' housing block

Thank you for making this possible

Helping communities in Nepal help themselves out of poverty

Annual Report - 2021

Hands Together Tiplyang Project was established in memory of Michael Allmand VC, Major James Lumley and Tul Bahadur Pun VC to support the education, healthcare and development of Tiplyang and neighbouring districts in Nepal.

"I have not seen a school looking this impressive for many years. I think you have got the perfect representatives of Hands Together keeping an eye on things."

Brigadier John Anderson OBE, President
6th Gurkha Rifles Regimental Association.
